

Spencer Watanabe

425-492-4907 | spencermasaki@gmail.com | 18500 40th PL NE Lake Forest Park, WA 98155

Professional Summary

Competitive team player looking to utilize technology and leadership skills gained through academic and athletic career in order to achieve company goals.

Education

George Fox University, Newberg OR
Bachelor of Science in Computer Science

April 2018

Experience

Game Tester – Nintendo of America Jan 2019 - Present

- Utilized critical thinking skills by testing for issues on unreleased software and software updates.
- Collaborated with team members and project coordinators in order to further research into game issues.

Excel Spreadsheet Expert – Invex Financial Nov 2018

- Updated the client's existing Excel spreadsheets and formulas to manipulate and display financial data.
- Designed improvements to spreadsheets by communicating progress with client.

Relevant Coursework

Senior Design Team – George Fox University Aug 2017 - Apr 2018

- Programmed a custom device capable of recording signals from a motor vehicle.
- Presented project goals and progress throughout the year to the class and the client.
- Improved communication skills via collaboration with group members, team advisors, and client.

Extra-Curricular Activities

Student Athlete – George Fox University Men's Tennis Team Aug 2014 - Apr 2018

- Acquired self-disciplinary, leadership, and interpersonal skills throughout 4 years of play.
- Served as a team captain for 2 years (2016-2018) setting goals, organizing practices and workouts, and communicating with coaching staff.
- 3-time NCAA All-American

Additional Skills

- Proficiency in Microsoft Excel, Word, and Powerpoint
- Interpersonal skills through coaching experience
- Competitive and self-motivated from college athletics
- Coding experience from school and personal projects