Experience / Projects

Apples & Oranges Arts / Website Redesign

January 2020 - June 2020, Irvine

Worked with a company that wanted to redesign their website to better suit the content they were offering currently. Apples & Oranges Arts is a theatre company that is currently helping many companies move their theatre content online. They needed a new website layout that better portrayed that.

Lyric Website Redesign

Jan 2020 - April 2020, Irvine

Worked in a group that was tasked with redesigning a website to provide a better user experience. Conducted research on how people felt about the website that is live, then asked for peoples opinion on what are some troubles with the website. Based on the input we got, we redesigned the website and created a prototype of what it could look like.

e-Commerce Website Design

Dec 2020 - Dec 2020, Irvine

Designed a website that is based on a product API where it can display, add to cart and purchase where the main database is updated with the most up to date information about availability.

Education

University of California, Irvine / Informatics - Human Computer Interaction

June 2016 - December 2020, Irvine California

The study of the fundamentals of informatics, software, and human behavior and how it all ties together. Also learning about how current designs shift human behavior and how we can design new software and shape it around human behavior and have it work better for society.
