WORK EXPERIENCE

- University of Washington Bothell — Peer Coach
MARCH 2021 – CURRENT
I coach first year students with their transition into college. I manage a caseload of 30+ students. My job consists of planning events, social media outreach, individual outreach, and personal one on one meetings with students. In this position, I am being trained in being a better leader, how to work efficiently with a team and I am consistently working on honing my communication skills.
 - I am in charge of leading and coaching students through a section of orientation at the University of Washington.
 - I helping students find solutions to academic, financial and personal issues and lead them to resources that may benefit them.
 - I develop and maintain personal relationships with peers and coworkers on a daily basis.
- Coast Property Management — Assistant Property Manager
MAY 2020 – NOVEMBER 2020
In this position, I was in charge of maintaining the main office of a storage facility in Marysville. I worked alone in the office and my job duties included renting units, cold calling past due renters, cleaning the property and working with customers to ensure they received an inviting experience.
 - I kept track of sales and revenue, specifically my commission made from units rented.
 - I answered questions about the company, and encouraged customers to rent units at the best possible rate.
 - I dealt with unhappy customers and was efficient in deescalating situations.
 - I worked with cash, checks and credit/debit cards to take payments and give change.
 - I assisted in marketing and advertising the business: posting to social media, creating flyers for events, and creating a welcoming environment to bring customers in.
- Buffalo Wild Wings — Waitress/Bartender
JUNE 2016 – NOVEMBER 2020
I was a waitress at Buffalo Wild Wings, and was promoted to bartender for the last year I worked with them. I learned to work and thrive in high stress, fast paced environments, including: managing many tables at once (sometimes tables of 40+ customers), memorizing food and drink orders, and handling the payments of multiple customers at once.
 - I memorized cocktail recipes and learned how to make multiple beverages at once.
 - I managed making drinks for the dining room guests as well as managing the bar rail and making mixed drinks.
 - I made meaningful and professional relationships with the customers that regulated the bar, to ensure a catered experience.
