

Schedule of Cover

This Schedule of Cover gives the details about your Talent Trust Consultants International Travel insurance. It is an important legal document. Please keep it in a safe place.

This document is issued in consideration of payment of the premium or portion due thereof stated in the schedule herein. The Group Master Policy (as held by Talent Trust Consultants), Schedule of Cover, Application Form (whether submitted in writing or electronically), and any endorsement attaching hereto, constitute the entire contract. This Schedule of Cover contains certain important information and conditions with which the Insured Person must comply. Please read this document very carefully and notify Talent Trust Consultants if any part of the Schedule is incorrect.

This is to certify that in accordance with the authorisation granted under the Master Policy, the number of which is specified in the schedule contents below to the undersigned by certain Insurers, whose names and the proportions underwritten by them, which will be supplied on application, can be ascertained by reference to the said, and in consideration of the premium specified herein, the said Insurers are hereby bound, each for his own part and not one for another, their Heirs, Executors and Administrators, to insure in accordance with the terms and conditions contained herein or endorsed hereon.

The Underwriters hereby agree, to insure against loss including, but not limited to associated expenses specified herein, if any, to the extent and in the manner herein provided.

Whenever coverage provided by the Master policy is in violation of any U.S. economic or trade sanctions, such coverage shall be null and void. For example, Aetna cannot pay for health care services provided in a country under sanction by the United States unless permitted under a written Office of Foreign Asset Control (OFAC) license.
