CORNELIUS NGY

Federal Way, WA 98003 · (206) 245-7219
cvnngy@gmail.com

PROFILE

University IT student with cyber security background with focused classes on network security, ethical hacking, risk management, and cyber security analyst. Thrives in a collaborative and fast working environment, working creatively and effectively to reach company business goals. Meticulous, communicative, and effective at monitoring databases and predicting product demand to help customers. Was a tutor for other students on troubleshooting issues related to networking, Windows system administration which includes active directory, authentication, user support services, and security issues.

EDUCATION

2017 - 2021
UNIVERSITY OF WASHINGTON TACOMA, Abet Accredited
- Bachelor's in Information Technology
- Scholarship status: Dean's List

2014 - 2016
Highline College
- Running Start Student
- Associate degree in Computer Science

EXPERIENCE

2018 – 2019
FedEx Freight, Dock Worker
- Verified documentation by matching freight information.
- Performed freight handling using a forklift or pallet jack.
- Secured freight inside trailers using straps, rope.
- Recoup and repair damaged freight when necessary
- Filed Shipments for loss prevention and damage claims.
- Trained in using FedEx's computer interface.

2016 – 2017
Lowe's, Stocker/Receiver

- Distributed and stocked merchandise throughout the store

- Created visual elements such as logos, original images, and illustrations that help deliver a desired message.

- Caring for store equipment and cleaning hazardous materials spills.

- Operated forklift and order picker

- Responsible for providing excellent customer service by greeting and assisting customers.

- Scanned items for inventory check and loss prevention

PROJECTS

- Project leader for developing a website for a nail salon to improve their business process, creatin task reports, and creating appointments that customers can schedule.
- Project developer tasked on creating a website to advertise video games, testing scenarios, and troubleshooting where users saw trouble with the website to finalize modules.
- Project analyst tasked setting up security configurations on a self-created network and monitoring the network for security breaches and other violations. Prepared reports to document breaches and potential risks and conducting penetration test using the vulnerability in a system.